Disciple's Cross Necklace

These crosses are hand-made and made in America.

They are approximately 1.75 inches tall and 1.25 inches wide. The leather cord is fully adjustable so one size fits most.

The Disciple's Cross is made up of 3 distinct elements. The simulated leather cord reminds us of the straps used to beat our Savior; the wrapped wire resembles the thorny branches twisted into a crown mocking the King of Kings; and the nails represent the large spikes that were driven into the hands and feet of our Lord.
